

The Archdiocese of Atlanta along with the Archdiocesan Forum for the RCIA and Liturgy Training Publications invite you to join other RCIA teams, catechists, and liturgical ministers for an opportunity to gather for prayer, training, and formation.

RCIA Summer Workshop

THE INITIATING PARISH

This gathering invites parish leaders and initiation ministers to come together to explore the theoretical and practical aspects of initiation ministry. Through interactive sessions and prayer opportunities, participants will understand more deeply that the vision of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the vision of the parish as a community of disciples.

Workshop Presenters

Victoria M. Tufano

is senior editor and liturgical consultant at Liturgy Training Publications. She is a former team member of the North American Forum on the Catechumenate and has served as chair of the board of directors for that organization.

Timothy A. Johnston

serves as editor and liturgical training consultant at Liturgy Training Publications. He is the co-author of Disciples Making Disciples: Print and Digital Resources for Forming the Assembly (LTP, 2017).

OPENING ADDRESS

The Baptismal Catechumenate and Its Role as a Model of Ongoing Formation

The presenters will explain the rationale for and meaning of using the baptismal catechumenate (RCIA, 75) as a model of ongoing formation for Catholic communities. Participants will have the opportunity to discuss the practical and philosophical challenges they face when trying to implement this type of formation. The presenters will explore ways to overcome these obstacles.

PRESENTATION

How Baptized Disciples Are Called to Live and Share Their Faith

This session explores how baptized disciples live and share their faith by asking questions, listening, accompanying, and connecting their stories to the story of Christ Jesus.
